For anyone who is searching for guidance in a time of need, finds that their faith is floundering, or simply wants to infuse some inspiration into their day, 101 MOST POWERFUL PROMISES IN THE BIBLE will provide the strength of God's message at the turn of a page.

Eleven profound prayers teach you the essence of faith and petition. If you're like many believers, you long to pray better, to shake off your dullness of spirit and encounter God more intimately. You want to pray with the courage of Abraham, to beseech God with the courage Moses, but.... There are many examples in the Bible of men and women who prayed fervent, effective prayers that God answered. That's the question: What kinds of prayers does God answer? What kind of faith does God respond to? This book examines in considerable depth eleven amazing prayers. Some are short, others lengthy, but each has something important to teach us. You'll study key prayers of Jesus, Paul, Moses, Abraham, David, Hezekiah, Daniel, and Nehemiah. The aim of this study is to help you develop in prayer, increase your faith, and move you into a new plane of communication with your Father in heaven. However, this is not a course in learning to manipulate God to get your way. It is a study of who God is and how He responds to his children's petitions. Thus it will help you adopt His own heart as you petition your Father. As you model your prayers and your faith after the exemplars put before you in God's holy Word, you'll gradually learn to take your place as one of Jesus' disciples whose prayers move heaven and earth. The book contains 11 lessons that can be used for personal enrichment and by small groups and classes. Preachers and teachers will also find a lot of their word study research done for them, with a number of illustrations and insights for lessons and sermons.

Gathered in this charming little book are prayers in pairs: One for you, Mom, and a corresponding one for your children. Each set covers a topic dear to your mother's heart--your children's relationship with the Lord, their growth in faith, their health, family and friends, and so much more.

Here Is A Preview Of What You'll Learn The Power of Prayer Kinds of Prayers Best-Loved Prayers Prayers For Different Occasions Affirmations and Positive Self-Talk Silence and Solitude Much, much more! The Power of Prayer Prayer is many things to different people. For the religious, it is an essential part of daily life. It is an obligatory act of piety, but much more than that, it is a direct, personal link to God or to the divine Being revered as most high and most holy. As such, prayer brings comfort, peace, strength and hope. When one is able to connect through prayer to the infinite Source of abundance and goodness, the worries and stress of mundane living melt away. Through prayer, one finds peace and solace. That is true even for people who don't really consider themselves to be religious. Some people may not pray in the traditional way (that is, by reciting prescribed prayers or performing the standard postures or movements), but they are able to commune with a higher spiritual power in silent prayer. The process brings succor and strength in the same way that prayer helps the devout. As such, prayer is beneficial for everyone, regardless of religious affiliation. What is prayer? Different religions are one in the belief that prayer is a means to make the Divine a constant part of our daily lives. Devout Christians believe that they should pray to serve and obey God, to hear His counsel and know His will, and to derive guidance for daily undertakings. To pray is to be reminded at all times of how God wants us to conduct ourselves and our lives. It is a reminder to be compassionate, forgiving, helpful to our fellowmen, and virtuous. That is similar to how pious Muslims and Jews regard prayer. In particular, Muslims pray the traditional five daily prayers in praise and remembrance of God and His infinite goodness. At the end of each prayer, they wish salaam or peace towards their fellowmen, thus prayer also serves to reinforce the unity and brotherhood of Muslims all over the world. For Buddhists and other followers of Eastern religions, meditation is prayer. It is at times accompanied by the chanting of mantras or words associated with the Divine, and with the use of beads not unlike the rosary beads of Catholic Christians. Meditation focuses one's attention on a Divine attribute such as peace, joy, or the Buddha nature which is present in all persons and all things. Apart from the above, prayer is also a personal conversation with God. Through it, one can seek Divine help, confess wrongdoings and ask forgiveness for them, offer gratitude for blessings received, and express whatever one wishes to. At times, a prayer may be said not for oneself but for another person. Healing prayers, for example, are made for family or friends who are sick or in distress. Similar prayers may be said for strangers in need, such as those we see on TV or the news as suffering from natural disasters or traumatic situations. In this manner, prayer is an expression of compassion and caring for other people. Order your copy today! Take action today and download this book for a limited time discount!

Taking seriously Paul's exhortation in 1 Thessalonians to pray without ceasing, Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger challenges pastors and congregations to put prayer at the center of their Christian practice and theological reflection. In this thought-provoking book Hunsinger reclaims spiritual practices from token use and unites them in a dynamic network of interdependent caring traditions. The book begins with the three foundational disciplines of spiritual reading, careful listening, and self-reflection. Hunsinger then explores prayers of petition, intercession, confession, lament, and thanksgiving. Finally she offers practical, workable suggestions for developing pastoral care groups and teaching care-giving skills at the congregational level. Clergy and laity alike will reap the benefits of this revitalizing look at the spiritual disciplines as dynamic forces in the life of the church.

The 100 most powerful morning prayers every Christian needs to know will truly transform your life and bring you peace. This is a must have book of contemporary Christian prayers. All of these prayers have been exclusively crafted by the poet Oliver Powell in a pleasant "ab cb" or "ab ab" pattern. Following this pattern as you recite the prayers out loud or read them silently calms the mind and fills your space with peace and light.

Many people today find that their prayers don't "work." And like a broken cell phone, DVD player, or TV remote, they throw prayer out as unnecessary "clutter" in their busy lives. Anne Graham Lotz has found that while prayer does work, sometimes the "pray-ers" don't. So she has turned to the prophet Daniel for help. The Daniel Prayer is born deep within your soul, erupts through your heart, and pours out on your lips, words created by and infused with the Spirit of God quivering with spiritual electricity. It's really not an everyday type of prayer. It's a prayer birthed under pressure. Heartache. Grief. Desperation. It can be triggered by a sudden revelation of hope. An answer to prayer, a promise freshly received, a miracle that lies just over the horizon. Join Anne in a thrilling discovery of prayer that really works. This book will help you pray effectively for your nation, for your families, and for yourself.
